fairs either, since she didn't write to me. However, between us (and 35 million readers) I suspect your hunch is correct. Guilt can produce skin trouble as well as a loss of voice. I hope Bonnie will talk frankly to her doctor about her feelings. When she clears her conscience she may also clear her skin.

Dear Ann: My boy friend and I are having an argument. He was in a car accident and had to be in the hospital for six weeks. Now he's at home.

He lives a long way from my house and I can take a bus over there, but getting home is a problem. I have to hire a taxi because the buses don't run after 11:30 p.m. I can't afford a taxi every night and have suggested that he pay for it. He says it's not his problem. What do you think?—TAXI BROKE

P.S. Don't suggest I leave earlier and get the bus. I don't want to.

Dear Broke: You're going over there too often and staying too long. Anything worth saying can be said before the last bus leaves.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Smoking" enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.

B'nai B'rith Will Elect New Officers

An election of officers for the coming term will be the principal order of business when Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women hold their regular meeting Monday, April 4, at the home of Mrs. Arnold Gillmer, 10625 Third Ave., Inglewood.

Members are invited to gather at 7:30 p.m. to watch the Hollywood Academy Awards presentation on television, after which the regular business meeting will be held. Those watching the presentation in their own homes will arrive for the meeting immediately thereafter.

Guests and prospective members are welcome, and refreshments will be served. Persons desiring additional information may contact Mrs. Gerald Chase of Gardena, membership chairman, or Mrs. Gillmer.

Rummage Sale

St. Theresa Guild of St. Margaret Mary Church in Lomita will hold a rummage sale on Thursday, March 31, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and on Friday, April 1, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. The sale will be held in the church hall, 255th and Eschelman in Lomita.

Entertain

Continuing a series of parties, as a ways and means project for the Torrance's Woman's club, Mrs. Roy J. Apsey and Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom entertained at a brunch and bridge party Tuesday at the Sanstrom home, 1514 Meridid Ave.

After the serving of a brunch, canasta and bridge were played. Winners in bridge were Mrs. Delbert Thomsen and Mrs. Hazel Ward. Canasta winners were Mmes. W. C. Moyer and Mrs. H. G. Stephens.

The party guest list included Mmes. James Thuss, Hazel Ward, W. C. Moyer, C. L. Porter, T. Dunbar, M. Copeland, John C. Warnock, B. W. Roberts, R. E. Moffitt, Eugene Lenk, H. J. Osborne, C. L. Harmon, Delbert Thomsen and H. G. Stephens.

Margo Feted On Tenth Birthday

Miss Margo Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney, was complimented at a party given last Saturday celebrating her tenth birthday.

The Whitney home at 4315 Via Frascati was decorated in the party theme. A decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream and guests were presented with party favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney then escorted Margo and her birthday guests to the miniature golf course on 101 Highway where prizes were awarded the high golf scorers.

Present for the celebration were Margo's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Haggard, and their granddaughter, Sandra Risher of Gardena, Margo's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Jeanette Elliott, and Pamela Boswell, Carol Meehan, Kathy Lewis, Pamela Franke, Donna Sulentor, and Pamela Dupont.

Informal Evening

Enjoying an informal evening in celebration of St. Pat's day at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo Beach were Torrance's Messrs. and Mmes. Richard Burch, Louis Fucci, James McDonald, Frank Dooney, Dave Sheppard, and John McVey. Messrs. and Mmes. Larry Sargent, Howard Hood, Paul Hogan, Art Cunningham, Mike Walsh, Art O'Keefe, and Mr. Emmett Turley also participated in the festivities of dancing to the juke box.

Chi Omegas To Observe Founders Day

More than 300 Chi Omega Alumnae and members of the local Chapters will gather for their Spring Eleusinian Luncheon commemorating Founders' Day on Saturday, April 2, at the Coconut Grove, Ambassador Hotel.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Ralph L. Byron, chief of surgeons at the City of Hope, Duarte, Calif.

Mrs. Langdon Tannehill, president of the coordinating council of Chi Omega, announced that reservations for the luncheon may be made with Mrs. John Melville, 1512 El Prado Ave., Torrance.

Chi Omega, National Woman's fraternity, was founded in 1895 at the University of Arkansas. Today it has 123 active chapters on college campuses, six of which are in California.

Local Alumnae planning to attend are: Mmes. John Melville, J. S. McGhee, Arthur Montgomery, James A. Lutz, Robert A. Moore, William V. Schneider, Cecil Robinson, Jason M. Terry, and Woodrow K. Thomas.

Spend Winter Here

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cowley of Racine, Wis., have spent the winter here as the guests of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bolyanatz, 21606 Palos Verdes Blvd. Besides the climate, the couple has enjoyed Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm, Marineland and Balboa. They will return to Wisconsin about the middle of April.

Husbands Take Over At Dianas' March Meeting

Members of Redondo Beach Dianas, Marina District, CFWC, junior membership will long remember their March social meeting, setting for the annual "Husbands' Nite" social event.

Commencing with a hearty dinner of barbecued chicken, baked potatoes with sour cream-chive sauce, green beans, almond, tossed green salad with French dressing, hot rolls, apple pie ala mode with coffee or tea, members and husbands settled down for the evening's entertainment.

Chuck Hillinger, husband of Diana president Arlene Hillinger, began the evening's festivities by introducing members of the board (in this case, all husbands of Diana officers acknowledged the introductions prior to making whatever announcements they deemed fitting). The program director, Leonard Comer (husband of Diana program chairman Pat Comer) then took charge and introduced stage director John Kenny, and play authors and actors in addition to Chuck Hillinger and himself. These were Joe Murrell, Jr., Paul Taylor, Robert Shank, Sheldon Golden-son, and master of ceremonies John Harrison. A satire based on various routine phases of club life was then presented by a cast numbering approximately 35 husbands of Diana members and provisionals to the great enjoyment of all attending.

Meriting bows for the delicious dinner were co-chairmen Mmes. Frances Goulart and Ray Pierce aided by a committee including Miss Lorraine Quimby and Mmes. Barre Bodenlos, Harold Black, Patrick Fazio, Glen Holzhausen, Ken Jonas, Robert Lang, Joseph Murrell, Jr., and Kenne Peach. Table decorations were created by Mrs. John Hansford.
